5. The Workbook - Instructions

There are two types of questions in this workbook. Most are of the first type – straightforward questions requiring answers that can usually be found within the verses indicated. These questions can easily be done as you read through the story of the life of Jacob. The verse where the answer can be found is given in the question.

You may be asked to give a word's meaning. This can be done in some cases using the notes in your Bible's margin or by using a concordance. If you do not know how to use a concordance, I am sure your parents would be glad to help you.

The second type is labeled TQ, which stands for thought question (though some kids like to refer to them as 'tough questions'). These are designed to make you think about the answer, so do not expect to find the answer in a specific verse. Answer them in your own words.

If you try real hard and still cannot figure out a good response to one of the TQ's then ask your mom or dad for some help. Actually, it is OK to ask them for help at any time, not just on the TQ's. Do not be surprised if you can think of more than one answer for a TQ. That is just how they are! Simply write down what you think is the best answer. For these types of questions, there is no right or wrong answer. They are intended to make you think about Jacob's life and what it means to you.

The purpose of this book is to get you familiar with Jacob or Israel, as he later was called, so that all students understand the theme and the lessons for each class. It is not to create frustration. There are over 110 days to the start of kids' camp. If you did only 5 questions a day you would be finished by the end of May.

Have fun and try to do your best.
