OLDER Squirt Workbook ~ 7-8 Year Olds
Manitoulin Youth Camp 2022

Dear Parents and Squirts,

We are excited that you are planning to join us for Manitoulin Youth Camp this year!

This is an optional workbook to give the squirts the opportunity to feel a part of the lessons that their “big brothers” or “big sisters” are working on for camp. If your child turns 7 or 8 by the end of 2022, then they would complete this “older” squirt workbook. (If they are 3, 4, 5, or 6 by the end of 2022, then they would complete the “younger” squirt workbook.)

The stories in this workbook are as follows:

1. Famine in Bethlehem
2. Return to Bethlehem
3. Gleaning in the Fields
4. A Close Relative
5. At the City Gates

You will notice that the stories do not follow the older children’s lesson plans exactly. Instead we have tried to include highlights that would be comprehensible and enjoyable for this level of squirts. We have also used the New King James Version for all of the included passages.

On the page following, we have included the memory verses for the week. The squirts are not required to memorize them, but they may enjoy learning them to participate with the older siblings during the week.

Do what you can and enjoy the workbook. We look forward to seeing you at Youth Camp, God willing!

A special thanks to Auntie Esther Keyes for helping with the questions, Auntie MJ Styles for the illustrations, and Auntie Karen Pillion & Auntie Bailey Moore for the activity pages!

We are going to start our study of Ruth by looking at what it was like in Israel in the time of the Judges...

PRACTICAL CHALLENGE

At the end of each section, there is a PRACTICAL CHALLENGE for you! We have taken one lesson from our story and are challenging you to apply this lesson in your own life.

Challenge #1

After Joshua died, the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD and forsook Him—even though He had delivered them from Egypt and taken care of them all through their journeys in the wilderness! They forgot about the way that God had saved them and provided for them.

It's important for us to always remember God's works and how He provides for us and be thankful to Him and serve Him. List some of the ways God has provided for you that you are thankful to Him for:

So she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.

¹⁰ And they said to her, "Surely we will return with you to your people."

¹¹ But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters; why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?"

¹² Turn back, my daughters, go—for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, if I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons,

¹³ would you wait for them till they were grown? Would you restrain yourselves from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me very much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD has gone out against me!"

Challenge #2

Although Orpah decided to return home to Moab—to her family and the Moabite gods (idols), Ruth chose to stick to Naomi. She told Naomi that she would never leave her as long as she lived and that she wanted Naomi's God to be her own God. Ruth could see that Naomi wanted to go back to Bethlehem— not just because it was Naomi's home- but also to serve God there. Ruth wanted to follow Naomi's example. Can you think of three people in your life who are a good example for you to follow in serving God, like Naomi was to Ruth? Write down the three people and something that they do that is a good example that you want to follow

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. So she brought out and gave to her what she had kept back after she had been satisfied.

19 And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed be the one who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz."

20 Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he of the LORD, who has not forsaken His kindness to the living and the dead!" And Naomi said to her, "This man is a relation of ours, one of our close relatives."

21 Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also said to me, 'You shall stay close by my young men until they have finished all my harvest.' "

22 And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that people do not meet you in any other field."

SECTION FOUR: A CLOSE RELATIVE

Read the Bible passage in the box and use the verses to answer the questions below.

Naomi's Plan — Ruth 3:1-6

¹Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, shall I not seek security for you, that it may be well with you?"

²Now Boaz, whose young women you were with, is he not our relative? In fact, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.

³Therefore wash yourself and anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

⁴Then it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies; and you shall go in, uncover his feet, and lie down; and he will tell you what you should do."

⁵And she said to her, "All that you say to me I will do."

⁶So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law instructed her.

WINNOWING

Winnowing was usually left for a moonlit night because in Palestine at about sunset there is a brisk breeze from the sea. The breeze is needed to separate the chaff from the grain. The mixture of grain and chaff was thrown up into the air straight into the wind. The lighter chaff was caught by the breeze and blown away, but the heavier barley kernels fell straight to the ground.

Read the Bible passage in the box and use the verses to answer the questions below.

Boaz Wakes Up — Ruth 3:7-13

7 And after Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was cheerful, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came softly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.

8 Now it happened at midnight that the man was startled, and turned himself; and there, a woman was lying at his feet.

9 And he said, "Who are you?" So she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant. Take your maidservant under your wing, for you are a close relative."

10 Then he said, "Blessed are you of the LORD, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request, for all the people of my town know that you are a virtuous woman.

12 Now it is true that I am a close relative; however, there is a relative closer than I.

13 Stay this night, and in the morning it shall be that if he will perform the duty of a close relative for you—good; let him do it. But if he does not want to perform the duty for you, then I will perform the duty for you, as the LORD lives! Lie down until morning."

7. Vs. 11 What did all of the city know about Ruth?

a) that she was a Moabite b) that she was a virtuous woman c) that she was funny

8. Vs. 12 Under the law, God said that the nearest relative could redeem a widow to protect and provide for her. Boaz tells Ruth that he cannot redeem her, because there is someone else that is a closer relative than Boaz. BUT if that relative does not want to redeem Ruth, who does Boaz say would? -----

Read the Bible passage in the box and use the verses to answer the questions below.

Ruth Returns to Naomi — Ruth 3:14-18

14 So she lay at his feet until morning, and she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said, "Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."

15 Also he said, "Bring the shawl that is on you and hold it." And when she held it, he measured six ephahs of barley, and laid it on her. Then she went into the city.

16 When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "Is that you, my daughter?" Then she told her all that the man had done for her.

17 And she said, "These six ephahs of barley he gave me; for he said to me, 'Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.'"

18 Then she said, "Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out; for the man will not rest until he has concluded the matter this day."

At the end of each section, there is a PRACTICAL CHALLENGE for you! We have taken one lesson from our story and are challenging you to apply this lesson in your own life.

Challenge #4

Naomi wanted to make sure Ruth was provided for and she gave Ruth instructions. Ruth did everything just as Naomi had told her to do. You also have parents and aunts and uncles who want to make sure that you are taken care of. God wants children to obey their parents and follow their instructions just like Ruth followed Naomi's instructions. Can you think of a time your daddy or mommy gave you instructions that might have been challenging to do, but you did it just as they said anyway? Write this story down and know that God is pleased when you honour your parents!

⁷ Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging, to confirm anything: one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was a confirmation in Israel.

⁸ Therefore the close relative said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself." So he took off his sandal.

⁹ And Boaz said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, from the hand of Naomi.

¹¹ And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built the house of Israel; and may you prosper in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem.
